

ICH NGO FORUM ELECTORAL RULES

Each year elections will be held to renew the Executive Board. Each member serves a period of two years and can only be elected for a further period of two years. To ensure continuity and take advantage of the experience of the incumbent members, only half of the Executive Board will be elected each year. Members representing the six electoral groups will be elected in alternate years, with the representatives from three electoral groups elected in one year and representatives from the other three electoral groups elected in the following year. Elections will be conducted as follows:

Group 1 consists of: Western Europe and North America; Asia and the Pacific, and Africa. To be elected in 2022, 2024, 2026 and so on.

Group 2 consists of: Eastern Europe; Latin America and the Caribbean, and Arab States. To be elected in 2023, 2025, 2027 and so on.
